

Risi Racing Review...

11/2/2018

Race 1

#2 Kolbee's Star- Takes a giant drop in class tonight and if gets the lead early on he is likely to take these wire to wire.

#5 Heza Rube- Showed last week his late kick is deadly and will be coming late no matter how fast the fractions are.

#4 Granite State- Was a regular all year long over the 5/8 mile oval at Tioga, has raced better here over a 7/8 mile oval since.

Race 2

#5 Brady B Brave- Made a slight skip in stride last week at the gate which cost him a few lengths or else he was a winner.

#2 Caritas Easel- Makes just her 7th lifetime start here tonight and has been improving since being the Macdonald barn.

#4 Kinematics- Has hit the board in 9 of 17 starts this year but has a hard time passing rivals late with just 1 win on the year.

Race 3

#2 Gimmiesomeroom- Takes a drop in class here tonight and her back class would put this field away with ease.

#3 Heavenly Way- Has a solid late closing kick and if the fractions are fast up front early on she may be flying late.

#7 Rockn Legend- Makes the 2nd start out tonight for the new barn and has hit the board in 16 of 32 starts this year.

Race 4

#4 No More Losses- Was heavily staked earlier in the year as a two year old and was bet down to 2-1 last week against similar.

#2 Unusual Clarity- Already has 5 wins in 24 starts this year and can ride the outside for as long as she needs to late.

#3 Treasure Gem- May be rounding into her best form late in the year and the short field will play to her advantage tonight.

Race 5

#3 Escada De Vie- Has lots of back class to beat this field and could be a live longshot against these tonight.

#6 Always Flash N- Likes to be forwardly placed early on and is always good for minor spoils in deep stretch.

#1 Island Adventure- Has a mark here for the year of 154.2 and does her best work from out of a hole late, inside post benefits.

Race 6

#2 Mckenzie's Star- Takes a double drop in class tonight and she is the gutsiest horse in the group by far.

#6 Gimmie The Cash- Has hit the board in 16 of 24 starts this year and got shuffled out early last week by surprise.

#3 Hanrahan- Has not been worse than 3rd his last 6 starts over the racetrack and just missed last week.

Race 7

#1 Tiger Boudoir- Will be able to save ground with the inside post early on and flashed a last quarter last week of 27.4.

#5 Delilah De Vie- Draws a better post tonight after the outside the last two weeks, big brush late.

#6 Dry Creek Gin- Has been nothing but impressive when it comes to versatility, only has one quick move in her late.

Race 8

#4 K J'S Caroline- Takes the stretch tonight from a half mile oval to a 7/8 mile oval and looks to be in good form coming in.

#5 Jaclyn Hanover- Looks for 3 in a row here but how fast they go early on could determine her fate late.

#2 Mydelight Bluechip- Likes to be near the lead early on and if she gets a pocket ride she could steal the show late.

Race 9

#7 Love To Roll- Returns to her stomping grounds after facing better last week at Meadowlands, needed a tightener.

#5 Heart Crusher- Has the ability to beat this field but tends to hang late if she doesn't pick up a perfect trip.

#1 Party Rockin- Looks to have found her best form over the last 3 starts and has 7 wins in 31 starts on the year.

Race 10

#1 Kabu- Has dominated this class all year long and the inside post tonight only makes it easier for him.

#5 Taco Tuesday- Has raced superb his last few starts here at Vernon and could wire this field tonight.

#2 Walk The Floor- Big gaited 7 year old has been lightly raced with just 13 starts this year and is in good form as of late.

Race 11

#1 The Big Muscle- Makes the 2nd start out tonight for the new barn and never had a shot last week with the break at the gate.

#5 Pinto Hanover- Raced well from the far outside last week and draws a much more favorable post tonight.

#6 Parkhill Horton- Has already shown he can beat this company and just needs to find his late kick to best these once more.
