Race 1

#6 Nubble Light- Has been down in class for some time now and if they bunch up late he will be the one to watch.
#2 Damon Blue Chip- Does not do well when racing from an outside post but has back class and draws a more favorable spot today.
#7 Life On The Road- Will more than likely be leaving fast from the outside here and try to dig in for minors late.

Race 2

#3 Mancrush- Has already won 2 of 5 lifetime starts and should be able to best these with ease after beating stakes company last out.
#5 Dream Of Fortune- Made the first start out for the new barn a winning one and should only get better here today.
#1 Regal Escape- Likes to make one giant move late in the stretch and with a short field an a inside post he has an edge.

Race 3

#3 Malibu S- Made a miscue at the start here last week and if she minds her manners here today she should prove much the best.
#7 Kerry B- Likes to make a late rally from off the pace and just needs to stay within reach till they turn for home to have a shot here.
#1 Mississippi Moment- Makes just her 4th lifetime start here today and looked to have improved a lot in her last start out.

Race 4

#4 Mr Pearl- Has only had 1 win in 24 starts this year but if he can brush and sustain his move he can best these late.
#5 Dateline Hanover- Has a giant mark last year of 154.0 over the half mile oval at Northfield and makes the first start out for the new barn today.
#2 Redhot Romeo- Was 4th last week but only beaten a length, needs to pan out a cleaner trip to best these in the stretch.

Race 5

#7 Somedew Somedont- Has struggled so far in 2019 but has qualified well several times and beat stakes company last year, longshot play.
#1 Haloman- Has raced better since adding trotting hobbles his last two starts out and draws a favorable rail post here today.
#4 Something Fine- Races better over a bigger track and had a lot of late trot to offer here last week when the front end caved in late.

Race 6

#2 Big Game- Takes a drop in class today after struggling against tougher and his back class may shine against these.
#6 Jamaican Cowboy- Made a miscue down the backside here last week but has been heavily bet by the public in his last two starts out.
#3 Upfront Lorne- Has won his last two starts out at Monticello with ease but the stretch to bigger track could help or hurt him.

Race 7

#4 Hands Off Frank- Has all the early speed to set the tempo today and will be the one to catch turning for home against these.

#3 Golden Brit- Likes to race from out of a hole late so if he is anywhere near the front late he has a good shot to get the win.
#7 Tundra- Makes his first start out after a long layoff and has back class to his credit which may help him get up for minors here.

Race 8

#6 Card Knock Life- His qualifier was scary good and if he brings his best effort today they will be no match for this class master.
#4 Napper Tandy- Has a big late closing kick in a field that looks like it may bunch up late, cover turning for home would help him as well.
#1 Sapiant Hanover- Comes in off a nice win against cheaper and draws the same exact post to work from today that he won from 4 starts back.

Race 9

#4 Jet Rock- Has hit the board in 7 of 10 starts this year and has done so facing stakes company as well, class edge coming into this one.
#1 Tempster Hanover- Likes to be near the lead early on and with a short field the fractions may be slow early on which will keep him in the ticket.
#3 Brookdale Bruiser- Does his best work first over at the 3/4 pole and may be able to sit in for a long time before he makes his move late today.

Race 10

#5 Liveonthephone- Has not been his best in his last few starts here and I expect a much better mile out of him against cheaper here today.
#2 The Bank K- Makes the first start out for the new barn here and if she can mind her manners she looks like she has a lot of early speed to offer.
#6 Mac's Black Hat- Will most likely be headed to the lead early here but needs to find some late kick if he wants to hit the board against these.
