

11/2/2019

#2 Whizzer Hanover- Steps up in class tonight after a very good effort last out, has a solid late kick to offer in the stretch.

#4 Painite- She takes a drop in class tonight looking to beat cheaper, she will be the one to watch when they turn for home.

#5 For Trot Sakes- Ships in from Illinois and makes the first start out for the new barn, needs to improve to best these.

Race 2

#2 Cheyenne Louie- Ships in from Batavia and comes in off a 3 race win streak, stretch to the bigger track helps tonight as well.

#6 Weapon To Win- Has solid early gate speed to offer and will look to leave the gate hard early tonight for position.

#1 The Fire Within- Always seems to race better from an inside post and beat similar company not long ago.

Race 3

#5 Fox Valley Steffen- Was a victim of a bad trip here last week and if he can find cover before they turn for home he will be tough to beat.

#8 Give Angel Credit- Found his winning ways last week against cheaper and will need his late kick to pass better in the stretch tonight.

#2 Leviathan- Has beaten cheaper when on the lead but has not been his best in his last two starts out, has more to offer if near the front end.

Race 4

#7 Here Comes Numbers- He has found his better form in his last two starts and has solid early speed, that's key in a backwards race.

#5 Winery Hanover- Has a ton of early speed to offer and tonight is her chance to bottom out the field only going 7/8 of a mile.

#8 Funny Photo- Has been facing tougher at Saratoga over the half mile as of late, faces cheaper tonight looking to improve.

Race 5

#7 Mister Truth- Has had no shot his last three starts out racing way over his head, should be best against cheaper here.

#1 Hestons Lucky Chip- Was sharp in victory here last week from the outside and will be able to save ground nearing the quarter tonight.

#5 Hands Off Frank- Ripped off a fast first quarter of 26.0 flat here last week and was able to win, going to have to be even better to make it two in a row.

Race 6

#6 Iammrbrightside- Has been facing much tougher as of late at Batavia and will waste no time getting the lead here against cheaper.

#3 Mister Livan N- Can leave the gate like a rocket and the fact that they are only going 7/8 of a mile tonight plays to his liking.

#4 Pantheon Hanover- Has been struggling at Saratoga against better as of late and returns to his old stomping grounds.

Race 7

#1 Blank Canvas- Has been versatile at several different tracks and has won off of a bad trip, looks every bit the part to win in here.

#6 Electrofire- Had a ton of late kick last week in deep stretch and got caught inside late, better trip tonight may put him in the winners circle.

#2 Golden Gun- Has made a few breaks in his last few starts out which is unusual, fits if he can mind his manners.

Race 8

#4 JDS Brent Sheree- Takes a drop in class tonight and has struggled with some breaking issues, faster than these if he brings his A game.

#6 Jack Rackham- Puts his best foot forward on a bigger track and the slower the early tempo is here the better off he will be.

#2 Nubble Light- Has a wicked late closing kick that is hard to stop and if they bunch up late he is the one to watch.

Race 9

#6 Jet Rock- Faced stakes company earlier in the year and has been a victim of a bad trip his last few starts, different tactic tonight against cheaper.

#3 Tempster Hanover- Dug in late last week in deep stretch to be third after being parked half a mile, needs to be close up early on.

#1 J K Fielding- Kicked away from cheaper last week on the far turn, inside post helps with the step up in class here.

Race 10

#1 Golden Kronos- Takes yet another drop in class tonight against cheaper and has back class from earlier in the year, best them late tonight.

#6 Sweet Royalty- Had to bottom off the field early on last week to get the job done and will look to do the same again tonight against better.

#2 The Big Muscle- Has a solid late closing kick to offer and with an inside post he will wait till they turn for home to make his move.

Race 11

#1 Samson J- Has been waiting to get an inside post to show his late kick he has to offer, tonight is his time to shine.

#7 CJ'S Roll On Two- Makes the 2nd start out for the new barn tonight and seeks his first win of 2019 as well.

#6 Feelin Lucky- Made a slight middle move as they turned for home last week but gave way, races better when near the front end early on.

Race 12

#5 CR Blazin Beauty- Has shown wicked early gate speed over the half mile oval at Batavia and will only get faster over a bigger track tonight.

#2 Spoiler Alert- Will look to be no worse than 2nd at the quarter pole and if the fractions are slow up front early on he could be deadly late.

#4 American JJ- Is the most gutsy horse in the field and likes to make a rally late, 2nd over turning for home would be ideal.

Race 13

#4 Southwind Blizzard- Comes in off a very sharp qualifier and seeks his 3rd win of 2019, may have more to offer.

#2 Air Dynamic- Likes to be forwardly placed early on and even if he does not win he should be able to hit the ticket against these.

#8 Rogemoji- Took a lot of money on the tote board here last week and made a break in stride, another shot for him tonight.
