

Risi Racing Review...

6/17/2018

Race 1

#2 Jet Rock- Qualified superb here on the 8th and there is no telling how fast he may turn out to be.

#1 Hestons Lucky Chip- Is bred out of world champion Heston Blue Chip who was know for his furious late kick.

#3 Bangor- Improved off his first qualifier and may be willing to give a lot more than what his qualifiers show.

Race 2

#4 Sports Vision- Made it look easy last out for the first time under new connections and the step up in class wont be an issue here.

#6 The Royal Garden- Likes to race uncovered or off a helmet and he may get that trip easily here in a shorter field.

#2 Big Game- Has good early gate speed and if he improves his late kick he can beat these.

Race 3

#5 Coopers Beach- Has a big mark here last year of 151.0 flat but needs to inherit an easy early lead here in order to win.

#1 Stonebridge Bonus- Has not been worse than 3rd his last 3 starts and is rounding into better form.

#2 Johnny Fly Swatter- Could be the late closer here but needs fast fractions in front of him early on to do so.

Race 4

#5 Jds Brent N Sheree- Has lots of ability and with only 7 starts this year he could be ready to explode off the 2 month layoff.

#4 Relentless Dreamer- Showed last week he is versatile and looks for his 4th win of the season.

#7 Fuzzylegsandall- Has a giant late closing kick and should be charging in the stretch late.

Race 5

#3 Odds On Demi-Queue- Was digging in late last week to get up for minor spoils and has lots of back class.

#5 Deo Davinci- Should be the lone early speed here and may try to take this field wire to wire.

#4 Metrosixshooter- Gets his chance to try a bigger track here today and makes only his 3rd start in 2 years.

Race 6

#2 Redot Romeo- Has been untested the last 2 weeks and is in razor sharp form right now.

#3 Danza- Is always flying late for minor spoils and has hit the board in 12 of 20 starts this year.

#1 Golden Brit- Likes to be forwardly placed and can keep up if the fractions are fast early on.

Race 7

#7 Gingertreefinnegan- Has lots of early speed and looks for 3 in a row here today.

#6 Jamaican Cowboy- Was flying last week in deep stretch and makes only his 2nd start off the ship in from Florida.

#1 Blended Whiskey- Has lots of back class and the 12 year old veteran has a mark here last year of 153.0 flat.

Race 8

#4 Nubble Light- Has the best late closing kick of all in a short field and that is a big advantage.

#2 Fire On The Water- Has not been worse then 3rd his last 3 starts out and 2 starts back he kept up after a blistering first half.

#5 Skip Jive- Made it look easy late last week but gets the class test here today.

Race 9

#1 Lyons Johnny- Takes a double drop in class here today and his better form will crush these.

#5 Dreams Beachboy- Has only had 3 starts on the year and they all came against very tough Open company.

#7 Serious Major- Has found his better form as of late and looks for 3 in a row here today.

Race 10

#3 Unprecedented- Has been facing stakes company as of late and should beat these with ease.

#2 Mister Desire- Has a good late closing kick and wont have to do much early on with the inside post draw.

#5 Gary's Place- Ships in from Canada and had 1 start here last year where she liked the 7/8 mile oval.
