

Risi Racing Review...

7/4/2018

Race 1

#5 Sharkbite Mike- Has good early gate speed and with soft early fractions he could take this field wire to wire.

#1 Zeitgeist- Improved in form his last 2 starts and the rail post here is a big help early on.

#7 Oaklea Tyson- Has only had 11 starts in 2 years and makes his first start out for the new connections here today.

Race 2

#8 Tiger Boudoir- Takes yet another drop in class here today and if she shows her class she is an untouched winner here.

#3 Gimmiesomeroom- Has a mark here last year of 152.4 and just needs to improve her late kick to be close here.

#6 Escada De Vie- Likes to come closing late but needs fast fractions in front of her in order to do so.

Race 3

#6 Poof Of Credit- Has been no worse then 3rd his last 3 starts and has much more talent then most in here.

#1 Muscle Up Hazel- Has raced better since adding Lasix and already has 3 wins in 11 lifetime starts.

#3 Yankee De Vie- Does his best work from off the pace but has only seen the winners circle once in 25 lifetime starts.

Race 4

#4 Pegasus Point- Has a big mark here last year of 156.0 flat and has much more back class than these as well.

#9 Parkhill Horton- Exploded last week out of the pocket to win and could be rounding into better form.

#3 Ex Crown- Has been a good 3rd in his last 2 starts out and could be the big late closer here.

Race 5

#1 Regal Roxy- Qualified well prior to today and is the most versatile horse in the field.

#2 Constant Factor- Flashed a big last quarter of 28.1 in her last start out and looks for her first win of the year here today.

#5 Island Adventure- Will be the big early speed here and the only question is can she hang on late.

Race 6

#8 Hanrahan- Has much more back class than this field and is racing against much cheaper than what he is used to.

#4 Kabu- Takes another drop in class here today and had 7 wins in 41 starts last year.

#5 Jersey Boy- Has not found his best form as of late but has plenty of ability to beat these.

Race 7

#1 Big Game- Has early speed with an inside post and that is a good angle to have time to make a winning move.

#5 Samson J- Has only had 6 starts this year and has a big mark here last year of 150.4.

#2 Stonebridge Bonus- Has good early speed and always digs in late just does not have a giant closing kick.

Race 8

#7 Gingertreefinnegan- Got shuffled out last week and was the heavy favorite at .60 cents on a dollar.

#4 Prince Aland- Just missed the last 2 weeks he has raced and is just waiting for that perfect trip to payoff.

#6 Blended Whiskey- Veteran 12 year old had 7 wins last year in 21 starts and has only had 5 starts so far this year.

Race 9

#5 Pinky The Intern- Has much more back call than these and just needs a clean trip to win.

#3 Kremlin- Has a good late closing kick and will be charging down the lane late.

#6 Bad Angel- Has a mark for the year at Pompano of 157.1 but has been in bad form as of late.
